

The Islip Resource Recovery Agency is a public benefit corporation created to assist in the planning and the development of waste management facilities in the Town. The Agency owns the MacArthur Resource Recovery Facility and provides refuse and recyclables collection to approximately 1300 homes in the Town through its collection unit.